On Wednesday, September 14th, 2011 at approximately 2:20 pm Prince Kurtiss Cheatham, age 26 of Redding, appeared in Department 1 of the Shasta County Superior Court. Cheatham was being arraigned on several warrants including out of county warrants as well as fresh charges for resisting arrest from a recent Redding Police case.

During his arraignment Cheatham ran to the exit doors of the courtroom in an attempt to escape. Deputies immediately attempted to restrain Cheatham, but he continued to resist the deputies. A taser was deployed and deputies were able to take Cheatham into custody without further incident.

At Cheatham's next arraignment he will face additional charges of attempting to escape from custody as well as resisting arrest.
